

Cleveland University

KANSAS CITY

Chiropractic and Health Sciences

2022-2023 Estimated Cost per Semester

Master of Science	One Semester
Tuition (6 hours)	3,900
Fees	0
Total charges to student account	3,900
Books and supplies	85
Living expense	11,056
Total cost of attendance	14,825

Federal Direct Loans

Must be enrolled in 6 or more credit hours per semester

Students enrolled in the MSHEP program will be:

- Automatically considered independent when completing the FAFSA
- Eligible to borrow up to $10,250 in Unsubsidized Direct Loans each semester
 - Direct Loans have a lifetime aggregate of $138,500 ($65,500 Subsidized)
 - This includes undergraduate Direct and Stafford Loans
 - Fixed interest rate is 5.28 %

Private Loans

These are private, credit-based loans and are not eligible to consolidate with federal loans. If approved, students may borrow up to the cost of attendance. More information on our website.

Questions?

Please contact the Financial Aid Office at 913-234-0736 or financialaid@cleveland.edu.

Revised 6.22.22

Master of Science in Health Education and Promotion